Rules and Regulations

1. The Car Show will be held on Friday, May 24th, 2019
2. MANDATORY MEETING on Tuesday, May 14th during your lunch. Meeting will be held in room #102.
3. Applicants may enter vehicle under one category.
4. Participants need to check-in and park their vehicle as early as 6:30 am the day of the event and if the participant does not check in by 7:00am, his/her vehicle will be disqualified and the entry fee will not be refunded. After check in, all vehicles will remain parked in the designated area until 3rd period. Location of check-in will be announced at mtg.
5. Immediately after the car show, all participants must remove their vehicle from the field to the parking lot and return to class. Students on a 4/4 schedule will leave the field and school at that time.
6. Quartz Hill High School is not responsible for any damage that takes place while in the Car Show. However to ensure maximum security for all participants' vehicles, no one will be able to enter the designated parking area for contestants during class time.
7. All teachers will have a list of Car Show participants. Participants will be excused from periods 3 & 4. Participants will not be excused from period 5, but the excuse list will act as your pass back to class after you have re-parked your car in the L-4 lot. Car Show participants will receive a field pass permitting them on the practice fields during periods 3 & 4. The field pass must be returned at the end of lunch in order to have their absences cleared from those periods.
8. All car show participants should report directly to their car after 2nd period. Do not report to your 3rd period class. Any cars not moved on to the softball field by the end of period 3 will not be entered in the show.
9. Car Stereos may only be played during the event (not during periods 3 and 4 leading up to the event). Any stereos played during class time will result in the participant being disqualified. All music must be clean, containing no profanity or inappropriate sayings. Failure to comply will result in disciplinary actions from Quartz Hill High School administration.
10. Absolutely no revving of engines unless specifically requested by one of the adult Car Show judges.
11. The only students allowed out of class and on the field prior to lunch will be those with Car Show field passes. All others will be directed back to class or to the Vice Principal.
12. No cars will be entered without paying the entry fee of $5. CASH ONLY
